

THE PICNIC

On a beautiful summer day,
a family went for a picnic —
a mother, a father, and their two beloved children.

They drove to their favorite place by the river,
a place they all loved.

The parents started grilling meat —

they loved eating it
and were especially good at cooking it.
Everyone praised their food.

Meanwhile, their son and daughter were fishing by the water.
Suddenly the boy caught something.
Excited, the cheerful girl ran
back to tell the parents.

When the boy pulled it out —
it was someone's heavy boot.
Out of the boot spilled some little fish...
and the children saw in the boot
a half-rotten human foot.

The children screamed in terror.

The mother quietly said to the father:
— How could you hide the evidence
so badly?

THE END

12.06.25

VLADISLAV